The 23rd Annual Rhode Island Statewide

HISTORIC ★ PRESERVATION ★ CONFERENCE

SATURDAY, APRIL 12, 2008
PROVIDENCE, RI

◆ Call for Nominations ◆ 2008 State Historic Preservation Awards ◆

Preservation Past, Present, and Future

The year 2008 marks the 40th anniversary of the Rhode Island Historic Preservation Act and the Rhode Island Historical Preservation & Heritage Commission. The 23rd Annual Rhode Island Statewide Historic Preservation Conference will use the anniversary as a starting point to explore the past, present, and future of historic preservation in Rhode Island.

In 1968, the Rhode Island General Assembly enacted legislation that expanded on the 1966 National Historic Preservation Act. The RI Historical Preservation Commission was established to direct a statewide preservation program that identifies historic properties, reviews state and federal projects, and administers funds. Heritage Programs were added in 1994.

2008 Call for Nominations

Each year, the Rhode Island Historical Preservation & Heritage Commission presents State Historic Preservation Awards to honor individuals, organizations, and projects for their outstanding contributions to the preservation of our state’s historic resources.

The Commission is seeking nominations for the 2008 Awards, which will be presented at the Statewide Historic Preservation Conference on Saturday, April 12 in Providence.

Join the Annual Conference in Providence to recall past preservation achievements, or focus on current critical issues, from environmental sustainability to economic development, affordable housing to heritage tourism. Choose a historic resource – schools and mills, neighborhoods and villages, farms and waterfronts, even Modern architecture – and pick up the latest strategies to guide future practice.

Tour historic neighborhoods around the Armory, Atwells, Broadway, Elmwood, and West Elmwood, where homeowners, non-profits, and developers have completed waves of revitalization and restoration projects. Visit mill rehabs along the Woonasquatucket River, and sample the city’s most exciting artspace. Travel through time to sites of “preservation’s greatest hits” – the Arcade, Masonic Temple, Benefit Street – and of its lost battles – Eagle Square, the Gorham plant, Wriston Quad.

On the West Side and throughout Rhode Island, historic preservation is a dynamic process. Join us on April 12 to explore the past, present, and future of historic preservation in Rhode Island.

The nomination deadline is February 15, 2008

Guidelines

- ◆ Nominations must be for projects, programs, and activities in Rhode Island.
- ◆ Projects must have been completed after January 1, 2003.
- ◆ Nominations of properties owned by others must include a letter of permission from the owner.
